Attachment 29 to Order Appointing Probate Conservator of the Person

As Conservator of the Person of David Rector, ROSALIND

ALEXANDER-KASPARIK is ordered as follows:

- 1. Ms. Alexander-Kasparik shall not change the placement of David Rector without first obtaining an order of this court. Such order may be sought by ex parte stipulation if Court-Appointed Counsel Nancy Ewin agrees in advance with the proposed change of placement. This order does not restrict emergency hospitalization or other emergency placement if deemed necessary by Mr. Rector's physicians.
- 2. Ms. Alexander-Kasparik shall not make substantive changes in the level and type of medical care that Mr. Rector has been receiving at the time of appointment without a court order authorizing such changes in advance pursuant to PC 2357. Such order may be sought by ex parte stipulation if Court-Appointed Counsel Nancy Ewin agrees in advance with the proposed changes. This order does not restrict emergency care if deemed necessary by Mr. Rector's physicians.
- 3. Ms. Alexander-Kasparik shall inform facilities, care providers and medical professionals of any concerns in writing and shall refrain from filing a complaint to a licensing authority until a reasonable time for response has elapsed.

- 4. Ms. Alexander-Kasparik shall provide brief weekly written summaries of Mr. Rector's status and progress to Andrew Laurie for dissemination to the family members; and she shall provide further specific information to any family member upon reasonable request.
- Ms. Alexander-Kasparik must follow the requirements of HIPAA and shall otherwise ensure that Mr. Rector's right to medical privacy is preserved.
- 6. Nothing in this order or in the appointment of Ms. Alexander-Kasparik is intended to negate or affect in any way the rules, policies and directives of any facility, entity or person. Ms. Alexander-Kasparik must continue to comply with the directions, restrictions and policies of the facilities, care providers and medical personnel involved in Mr. Rector's care.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
