4 April 1974

From: Thomas F. Coleman & Arthur C. Warner
To: Committee members and invited guests
Subject: Denver meeting, 24 through 27 May, 1974

As most members already know, the Committee will meet in Denver, Colorado, from Friday, 24 May, through Monday, 27 May. Headquarters will be the New Albany Hotel, at 17th & Stout Streets in downtown Denver, where accommodations beginning Thursday night, the 23rd, have been arranged and where all meetings will be held. Meals will be available at the hotel and also at numerous restaurants in the immediate vicinity. Rates are $14.00 single, $18.00 double, and $21.00 for twin-bedded rooms. Those attending should plan to arrive sometime on Thursday, the 23rd, since the sessions will begin promptly Friday morning. Each person should make his or her own individual reservation with the hotel for the kind of accommodation desired. A reservation form for this purpose is enclosed. Those planning to remain in Denver after Tuesday, the 28th, may continue to stay at the New Albany or can be accommodated in private homes, which will be made available to Committee members at the conclusion of the conference.

The following agenda has been planned, but members are encouraged to suggest additional subjects for discussion or to recommend deletions or other changes by communicating with either of the undersigned. In draughting the agenda, consideration was given to the fact that, on both Saturday and Sunday, the 25th and 26th, there will be guest speakers. Two sessions daily are planned, a morning session from 9:00 A.M. until noon and an afternoon session from 2:00 P.M. until 5:30 P.M. The only evening session is an optional one scheduled for Sunday, the 26th. In the agenda below it should be noted that, wherever a speaker has been scheduled, there will be a general discussion of the subject at the conclusion of his presentation.
