Dear Dr. Warner:

Your answering service informs me that you may be away from your home until January 15. Since I return to my family home in Colorado before that date, I write you concerning the proposed Victimless Crimes and Sexual Civil Liberties Reporter.

I have found two or three NYU law students other than myself who are willing to do research for the proposed reporter. Mr. Steven Leleiko, clinical instructor and assistant to the Dean at the Law School, has agreed to grant these students and myself academic credit in directed research subject to clarification on the students' specific responsibilities for the reporter. Since I haven't spoken with you for some weeks on the matter and won't be able to before the end of the month, I suggest you call Mr. Leleiko at (212) 598-2210 at your convenience to discuss the project. Also, I would appreciate a note from you afterwards in order to draft a more formal prospectus of the students' activities for Mr. Leleiko.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Daniel R. Pinello
