From: Arthur C. Warner
To: Committee members and invited guests
Subject: Miami meeting, 20 through 23 February, 1975

As those who plan to attend already know, there will be a meeting of the more active members of the Committee in Miami, Florida from Thursday, 20 February through Sunday, 23 February, with departure on Monday, the 24th. Reservations have already been made at the Coconut Grove Hotel, 2649 South Bayshore Drive, Miami, 33133, for the five nights beginning Wednesday, 19 February. All Committee meetings will be held at the hotel. No individual reservations need be made by those attending. For those wishing to arrive prior to the 19th or to stay after Monday, the 24th, accommodations in private homes are being arranged if they so wish. Accommodations and meals at the Coconut Grove for the period indicated are being provided through the largess of a friend of the Committee. Drinks, however, and any meals outside of the hotel, will be at the individual's own expense.

The following agenda -- which has already been informally discussed by the undersigned with most of those planning to attend -- is suggested.

THURSDAY, 20 February

Morning:

9:00 A.M. to Noon

Informal meeting to discuss agenda and to decide at what point during the conference to hold a business meeting. Likely items for discussion at business meeting include, but are not limited to:

1. Relations with A.B.A.
2. Committee representation at conferences in cognate fields
3. Having outside speakers address Committee meetings
4. Committee's approach to the Federal Government
5. Publicity

Afternoon:

Dr. Michael F. Valente

Afternoon:
2:00 P.M. to 5:30 P.M.

The Eight "Reformed" Jurisdictions: What really has been done, what still needs to be done -- Arthur C. Warner. Discussion will include various legislative approaches and will present an overview of the legislative situation in several states where reform is presently most promising.

SUNDAY, 23 February

Morning:
9:00 A.M. to Noon

Problems of Standing -- Michael Miller, Esq. This is a repeat performance, and will make particular reference to Dombrowski v. Pfister, Younger v. Harris, Steffel v. Thompson and related cases.

Afternoon:
2:00 P.M. to 5:30 P.M.

Legal Disabilities of Single People -- R. Michael Wetherbee, Esq. Consideration will be given to ways in which homosexuals, whose life patterns approximate those of heterosexually-married couples, may obtain some of the same legal rights and privileges as those couples. To be followed by group discussion.

Faithfully submitted,

Arthur C. Warner
