SUBJECT SEXUAL LAW REPORTER

MESSAGE

Dear Oscar:

I thought the enclosed might be of interest to you. The Sexual Law Reporter is published by a very hard-working young lawyer, Tom Coleman, who is a friend of mine and who is helping us create that "Index to Court Cases" for the Journal of Homosexuality.

To my knowledge, this publication is the only law reporter devoted exclusively to sex problems, and which also includes information on legislation and related areas. It's a non-profit venture, but unfortunately the people behind it are as naive about libraries as they are hard-working. In your capacity as Associate Book Review Editor of the Law Library Journal, I thought you might be in a position to help. Perhaps not in your section, but in the "Current Comments" portion there might be room for mention of this project.

With warmest personal regards,

REPLY

Bill
