

Arthur C. Warner

A.B. Princeton University; LL.B. & Ph.D. (British history) Harvard University

Field representative 1946-1949 for the American Association for the United Nations and subsequently director of its Minnesota chapter.

Sometime professor of history Rider College, Lawrenceville, New Jersey and University of Texas (El Paso). Have also served as lecturer in history at Fairleigh Dickinson University, Teaneck, New Jersey.

Legal consultant to and member of Board of Directors of the Mattachine Society of New York. Presently serving full time as co-chairman (with Professor Walter E. Barnett) of the National Committee for Sexual Civil Liberties.